

WILSON FINISHES DEFINITE PLAN

Will Submit Proposition to Railroad Managers and Employees Today

COMMITTEE IN CAPITAL

President Will Meet Employees
This Afternoon--May Meet
Managers This Morning

CONFERS WITH CHAMBERS

WASHINGTON, Aug. 16.—President Wilson today completed a definite plan for settlement of the threatened nationwide railroad strike and will submit it to representatives of the managers and employees tomorrow. Although administration officials said negotiations would be continued until a peaceful solution was found, the outcome of the president's mediation is expected to depend largely on the attitude of the two sides toward the plan he has drawn up.

The proposition proposes that the railroads concede the eight hour work day with an agreement that it will be observed. Later it probably will be proposed that a federal commission appointed by the president or created by congress investigate all problems which have arisen during the present discussion.

The chief obstacles in the way of acceptance of the plan lies in the insistence of the railroad managers on arbitration and their opposition to the eight hour day and the demand for time and a half overtime.

The general committee of the employees, including 640 representatives of the trainmen and engineers on the 225 railroad systems of the country arrived here tonight in response to a summons by their sub-committee which has been meeting with the president. The men said they thought the outlook encouraging for a settlement.

At 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon the president will meet the entire general committee in the white house. He will present his plan and appeal to their patriotism, urging a compromise in the interests of the nation. It is probable that the managers committee will meet Mr. Wilson tomorrow morning. To them he will make practically the same statement he will deliver to the employees, paying particular attention, however, to the points he feels the managers should concede. The president completed his plan during a conference today with Judge William L. Chambers, of the federal board of mediation and conciliation, who took to the white house statistics showing the probable cost to the railroads of a basic eight hour day.

The conference between the president and Judge Chambers was the only formal meeting of the day in connection with the situation. The managers spent the day in informal meetings at their hotel. The employees representatives rested at their hotel, saying they had nothing to confer about among themselves. The president is depending largely on public opinion to force a settlement. Discussion of the creation of a federal commission centered largely around the contention of railroad officials that such a commission would be able to get at all the facts and be able to prevent a recurrence of the present crisis.

The principal reasons advanced by the managers in insisting on arbitration were their belief that the whole principle of arbitration is at stake and points made during the consideration of their recent petitions for a five percent increase in freight rates. The interstate commerce commission intimated at that time that when railroad officials gave wage increases of their own accord and without arbitration they must bear the consequences.

The managers' committee had experts at work compiling data on the cost to the railroads of an eight hour day. This data they planned to present to the president to uphold their position. It was thought that the managers would not give a decision on the president's plan until after they held a meeting following their conference with Mr. Wilson. All day petitions from unorganized railroad workers protesting against a general strike continued to arrive at the white house. Members of congress kept in close touch with the situation.

DISCUSSES OPERATION OF RURAL CREDIT LAW

SENATOR HOLLIS ISSUES STATEMENT
AT CHICAGO HEADQUARTERS

Expresses Opinion that Federal Loan Banks Should be Established in Such Cities as Springfield, Ill., Davenport, Ia., Evansville, Ind., and Sioux Falls, S. D.

Chicago, Aug. 16.—Senator Henry F. Hollis, of New Hampshire, in a statement issued at the western campaign headquarters of the Democratic National committee discussed the practical operation of the new rural credit law and expressed opinion that federal loan banks to be established in connection with new legislation should be located in such cities as Springfield, Ill., Davenport, Ia., Evansville, Ind., and Sioux Falls, S. D.

Senator Hollis said: "In framing the rural credits law the problem was to do for the farmer what the National and state banks do for the commercial interests. At the outset it was clear that the legislation would have to be based on the security of farms and that the rate of interest would have to be low and the terms of repayment easy. The plan was finally perfected meets all these requirements."

"The public interests are represented by the farm loan board composed of five members including the secretary of the treasury."

"This board has the general supervision of the system. The continental United States is to be divided into 12 loan bank districts, each containing a federal loan bank."

"These districts will not be identical with the federal reserve districts and it is said that no loan banks will be located in any city which now has a Federal Reserve Bank. The actual banking business will be done by the 12 loan banks which will have nine directors, three appointed by the farm loan board to represent the public interests and six elected by the National Farm Loan Association of the Districts. These associations will be composed of not less than ten farmers who desire to borrow on the security of their farm lands. They will pass on the loans of their members to the local banks. Each farmer becomes a member of the local association and the local associations hold stock in the loan banks. Whatever is earned above the expense will go to the members thru the stock of the local associations."

"It is my personal idea that the federal loan banks should be placed in such cities as Springfield, Ill., Davenport, Ia., Evansville, Ind., and Sioux Falls, S. D."

STATE DEPARTMENT EXPLAINS DELAY IN NAMING CONFESSES

MEXICO CITY, Aug. 16.—Foreign Minister Aguilar received a communication today from the American state department explaining the delay in the appointment of the American conferees to the international conference between Mexico and the United States. The communication explained that several men of high standing and position whom it had been desired to appoint were unable to accept because of other engagements. It concluded by saying that the American government deemed it better to wait and obtain the services of men undoubtedly fitted to act rather than to rush the matter thru by immediate appointment.

WILLIAMS HEADS ASSOCIATION OF RAILWAY SUPERINTENDENTS

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Aug. 16.—W. S. Williams, of Carbondale, Ill., was elected president of the American Association of Railway Superintendents at the opening of their annual convention here today. The possibility of a general railroad strike prevented attendance of a majority of the members. Other officers named were:

C. E. Riecke, Cincinnati, first vice president; A. G. Smart, Beardstown, Ill., second vice president; E. H. Harmon, St. Louis, secretary-treasurer.

An address by Charles H. Markham, president of the Illinois Central railroad on "the superintendent" featured today's meeting.

Figures made public today by Comptroller Williams show total deposits on June 30 of $10,856,000,000; loans and discounts of $7,679,000,000, circulation of $676,000,000 and reserves of $2,076,000,000.

London, Aug. 17.—Patrick Callaghan, said to be an American, was arrested yesterday on a charge of attempting to force an entrance into Windsor Castle in an effort to see King George. Officers declared he was insane and he was sent to an asylum.

Callaghan said he desired to see King George to express his claim as original inventor of the submarine.

War News Summarized

French and British, striking with terrific force in three directions on the Somme front have stormed nearly three miles of German trenches, driving forward at points to a depth of 300 to 500 yards.

Maurepas and Clercy, two of the most important points held by the Germans in this sector, have been flanked on both sides, according to the official statement issued by Paris. The road has also been reached between Maurepas and Guillemont, the latter town being the immediate objective of the British. This advance brings the allies directly in front of the large railroad town of Comblès.

South of the Somme the French stormed German trenches over a length of about three quarters of a mile, driving forward in a southerly direction from Belloy En Santerre. Paris reports that a considerable number of prisoners were taken in these positions.

No important action is reported from the Russian front. The most interesting item of news regarding the Italian advance is contained in a news dispatch from Milan, which says that German troops are to be employed in the defense of the big Austrian port. If corroborated this means that Italy and Germany will at last enter an active state of war. Once again Berlin reports fighting at Dorlan on the Saloniki front but Paris and London maintain their silence in regard to the situation in this theater.

TIE LEGISLATIVE SITUATION IN SENATE INTO HARD KNOT

Republican Leaders and Senator Owen, Democrat, Threaten Plans of Administration Leaders to Secure Early Adjournment.

Washington, Aug. 16.—Republican senate leaders and Senator Owen, Democrat, tied the legislative situation in the senate into a hard knot today, threatening the plans of administration leaders to assure an early adjournment of congress. The obstacle interposed was the Owen corrupt practices bill to limit and regulate political campaign contributions. The Democrats did not include the measure in their legislative program but Senator Owen wants it passed and Republican leaders want definite assurances of its postponement until the December session.

Senator Owen's attitude resulted in a declaration by Republicans that they would not agree to any unanimous consent requests to fix a time for voting on either the shipping or revenue bills. Senator Owen thereupon announced that he also would refuse unanimous consent on request to fix a time to vote on other bills as long as opposition to taking up his measure persisted. Some Administration leaders thought President Wilson might have to be appealed to if the way were to be cleared for the shipping, revenue and workmen's compensation bills which would complete the legislative program. The revenue bill was reported from the finance committee today.

WOMEN BEGIN REAL WORK OF CAMP LIFE AT LAKE GENEVA

LAKE GENEVA, Wis., Aug. 16.—The patriotic women assembled here to learn how they can be of great assistance to their country should occasion arise began the real work of camp life today in the second of the service school camp of the women's division of the navy league of the United States.

First aid was the principal lesson imparted to the 200 women volunteers. Two classes were given, the first under the direction of Captain Philip Schuyler Doane of the United States medical service and the second under Dr. Junius S. Hoag.

A part of the camp, especially interesting to the recruits contains one army kitchen, three armored autos, one ambulance and one military truck. Four red cross nurses and two surgeons are on duty on the northwestern military academy drill grounds where the encampment is being held.

HUGHES ASSAILS PHILIPPINE POLICY

Criticises Democratic Party for Wanting to Abandon Islands

ADDRESSES BIG CROWD

Nominee Declares U. S. Needs Efficiency in Every Department of Government

AWNTS PROTECTIVE TARIFF

PORTLAND, Ore., Aug. 16.—Charles E. Hughes before a large audience here tonight assailed the Democratic party for its policy toward the Philippines.

"We cannot afford in this country to lose sight of national obligations," Mr. Hughes said. "Our friends on the other side were almost ready to say that we should abandon the Philippines. That was the matter of national honor. We assumed obligations there, which we are bound to discharge. It is not so much a matter of self interest. I do not care so much with respect to the argument of self interest. But when this nation undertakes before the world a responsibility it must discharge it."

"And we ought not to consider the suggestion of scuttling out of the Philippines to leave them in the predicament which you know perfectly well without my describing it."

"We need more of a sense of obligation as individuals. If we have the sense of national honor, a dominant consciousness of national unity, a proper upbuilding policy of conserving the components of American enterprise we shall do well but we need still more. We need thorough administrative department high standards of public work. We need efficiency in every department of American government."

Mr. Hughes speaking of the tariff referred to a letter written, he said, by "an eminent Democrat," on July 28th., to the president of the Illinois Manufacturers' association in which it was said that it "ought to be possible to make the question of duties merely a question of progress and development."

"I don't care whether this letter is authentic or not," Mr. Hughes said. "If it is not authentic then the provision of law is little more than a sham. If it is authentic it does not represent the sentiment of the Democrats."

The nominee reiterated his argument for a protective tariff, for commercial preparation for competition with Europe after the war, for "reasonable, adequate preparedness," and repeated his declaration that the Democratic party was opposed to national progress.

"Why if I were a member of that party—and I speak with all good nature, because we are threshing things out here now—and looked thru the platforms of the past I should feel that I was going thru a cemetery richly embellished with monuments," Mr. Hughes referred to the number unemployed in 1914, due largely, he said, to the Underwood tariff.

"They knew why they were unemployed," he added. "Everyone of them was a tariff expert. There were 300,000 unemployed tariff experts in the city of New York alone."

"You can't put American workmen alongside of workmen of other countries who work at less wages and expect the American workmen to survive. You have got to get down to the common basis of competition. It is perfectly idle to suppose you can have the American wage scale and the American standard of goods and let in goods made under a lower standard of living without hurting American enterprise and American workmen."

In reference to Alaska Mr. Hughes said:

"I would not have much confidence in speaking of a new spirit in American life I did not believe in the integrity of the business men of America. I believe that we can do things right in this country and develop our resources. You have got an empire in Alaska. I want to see it developed right."

"I have had something to do in my life with correcting and preventing abuses in connection with public matters and I tell you now, my

CORPORAL KILLS FELLOW OFFICER AND WOUNDS MEXICAN GIRL

BROWNSVILLE, Texas, Aug. 16.—Corporal James Clement, C company, second Virginia regiment was shot and instantly killed tonight and Sofia Valdez, a Mexican girl, was probably fatally wounded by another corporal assigned to the quartermasters corps of the regular army.

A corporal who gave his name as Dunches later was chased by a posse two miles and his trail lost. Later he appeared at the county jail and surrendered.

Corporal Clement, who was 28 years old, came from Warrenton, Va., and is survived by his widow.

The Valdez girl had repulsed Dunches' advances according to members of her family and when threatened with violence, it is stated, called for assistance. Just as Corporal Clement appeared to aid the girl, he is charged, Dunches shot the Mexican girl twice and turned his weapon on Clement killing him instantly with two bullets in the breast.

Dunches was being held at the county jail tonight.

WOULD HAVE LOCAL OFFICIALS CONTROL MUNITIONS SHIPMENTS

WASHINGTON, Aug. 16.—New Jersey congressmen and city officials at hearings today before the house commerce committee asked that local authorities be permitted to control shipment and storage of vast quantities of explosives and munitions at New Jersey ports in order to prevent repetition of the Black Tom Island explosion. The New Jersey delegation urged passage by congress of bills prohibiting shipment of munitions except for the United States, unless local communities consent, and giving local authorities power to fix regulations.

Senator Martine, Representative Hamill and Egan, Jersey City commissioners and other officials told the committee there was imminent danger of another explosion. On behalf of the inter-state commerce commission Secretary McGinty said it had carefully considered its authority and decided it was without the power to act in the New York harbor situation.

NAVAL BILL ENTERS FINAL LEGISLATIVE STAGE

LANSING TO APPEAR BEFORE COMMITTEE

WILL ANSWER QUESTIONS RELATING PURCHASE OF ISLANDS

Senate Committee Decides Personal Explanation Would be Necessary to Satisfy Some Members Regarding Details of Treaty.

Washington, Aug. 16.—Secretary Lansing was asked to appear Friday before the senate foreign relations committee to answer questions relating to the treaty for purchase of the Danish West Indies. The committee decided a personal explanation from the secretary would be necessary to satisfy some of the members regarding details relating to business concessions in the investigations and to the purchase price.

Some of the senators on the committee believe the $25,000,000 asked by Denmark exorbitant, especially in view of the fact that she offered to sell them for $5,000,000 in 1902. The committee will question Mr. Lansing particularly, however, about business concessions which the United States by the terms of the convention proposes to maintain. Among these are a license to a company, giving it rights to utilize certain areas in St. Thomas Harbor and preferential rights as to commercial, industrial or shipping establishments in the harbor. Another concession gives the same company the right to supply electric light for the City of Charlotte Amalie.

Senator Stone, chairman of the committee said tonight the treaty probably would not be reported to the senate for ratification until next week.

Delay Settlement

Copenhagen, Aug. 16.—Via London.—The Landsting, the upper house of the Danish parliament met today to consider the sale of the Danish West Indies to the United States and 47 of the 61 members favored the order of the day stating that the sale cannot be settled before elections for both houses of parliament have been held.

Take Unofficial Vote

St. Thomas, Danish West Indies, Aug. 16.—Apparently the inhabitants of the Island of St. Croix are in favor of the sale of the Danish West Indies to the United States. Unofficial balloting was held here yesterday and of the votes cast five thousand were in favor of the proposition and only eleven against it.

The population of St. Croix in 1901 was 18,590.

NEW YORK CARMEN DEMAND RECOGNITION OF THE UNION

Adopt Resolution at Mass Meeting That Strike will be Declared "Forthwith" Unless Company Acts

New York, Aug. 16.—Another strike of conductors and motormen employed by the New York Railways company will be declared "forthwith" unless the company grants recognition of the union, according to resolutions adopted at a mass meeting of the men tonight.

The resolutions of the carmen, after authorizing their leaders to call a suspension of work on all lines of the New York Railways company unless a satisfactory understanding can be reached tomorrow, declares that the company for four days past has failed to comply with requests for a conference with the employees committee. The resolutions not only reiterate the men's charges that the company indiscriminately discharge demagogues who were active in the recent strike but accuse the company of promoting and encouraging a plan of its own for selecting committeemen to represent the employees in the settlement of future disturbances.

DROUGHT DAMAGE TO CORN NOT AS GREAT AS WAS EXPECTED

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Aug. 16.—Drought damage to corn is not as great as was expected, being less than 25 per cent in Illinois, according to the weekly weather and crop summary issued today by Clarence J. Root, director of the United States weather bureau here. The summary says:

"The week ended with the coolest weather since June. The drought was broken. One to nine inches of rain fell at all stations, with the single exception of Cairo, greatly benefitting the corn, pastures vegetables, clover and alfalfa. The drought damage to corn is not as great as was at first supposed, and estimates now indicate that the average damage will be less than 25 per cent. Fall plowing has been commenced with soil now in proper condition for working."

SENATE APPROVES PHILIPPINE BILL

Washington, Aug. 16.—The Philippine bill as reported from conference with the Clarke amendment providing for independence of the islands within four years eliminated but containing a promise of freedom whenever the Filipinos have demonstrated their ability to maintain a stable government, was approved by the senate. The vote was 37 to 22.

TO HOLD MEDICAL CONFERENCE TODAY

Health Officials to Discuss
Means of Combatting
Infantile Paralysis

HEALTH SERVICE AROUSED

Authorities to Work Out More Definite Scheme of Co-ordinating
Campaign Against Disease

McADOO TO ADDRESS MEETING

WASHINGTON, Aug. 16.—What officials regard as one of the most important medical conferences in the country's history will meet here tomorrow to discuss means of combatting infantile paralysis.

Health authorities from thirty eight states, officials of the federal public health service and many leading scientists will exchange views on methods of treatment and prevention, and will work out a more definite scheme of coordinating their campaign against the disease. Representatives of various railroads will also be present for consultation.

While officials here have insisted that there is no occasion for panic and no likelihood of a countrywide epidemic there is every indication that the health service has become thoroughly aroused by the persistence of the outbreak of the disease in spite of best efforts of local and federal officials. The outbreak has presented many developments baffling to scientists, and there are questions relating to the origin, transmission and control of the disease on which authorities differ widely.

All of the subjects will be gone over in detail at the conferences, which probably will last two days. This statement regarding its purposes was issued tonight.

"The conference is made necessary by the seriousness of the infantile paralysis situation. Consideration will be given to the prevention of the interstate spread of the disease, research problems, symptomatology, epidemiology, general principles of control and the relation of the after care of infantile paralysis patients."

In his call for the conference issued August, Surgeon General Blue asked each state to send one representative.

In the absence of the surgeon-general, who is ill at Hot Springs, Va., Acting Surgeon General A. H. Glennan will open the conference. Secretary McAdoo will make an address and then reports on the prevalence of the disease in the various states will be heard before discussion of the research problems, symptoms and methods of cure are taken up.

Among those who had arrived tonight for the meeting are eminent scientists, bacteriologists, physicians, surgeons and leaders in past campaigns against various diseases. Experts with long experience in combating infantile paralysis are included. Dr. George Draper, of the New York health board and an infantile paralysis authority is the representative from that state. Dr. John S. Fulton, Maryland's representative, is former secretary and director of the international conference of his hygiene. Dr. C. St. Clair Drake, secretary of the Illinois health board and Illinois delegate, has a wide reputation in epidemic control.

Oregon's delegate is Dr. D. N. Roeborg, celebrated for work in fighting Asiatic cholera. Dr. E. G. Williams widely known for scientific health rejuvenation work will represent Virginia. Dr. T. D. Tuttle, of Washington state gained prominence for work in combating Rocky Mountain spotted fever.

Guests of the conference will be medical representatives of the Lehigh Valley, Erie, Baltimore and Ohio, Western Maryland, Norfolk and Western, Atlantic Coast Line, Pennsylvania, Chesapeake & Ohio, New York Central, New Haven, Central of New Jersey, Seaboard Air Line and Southern Railroads. The Pullman company will be represented by Dr. Thomas R. Crowder, an authority on the subject of railroad car ventilation.

Forgetting Sullivan.

Roger Sullivan's friends in Chicago are charging President Wilson with forgetting his friends. It seems that none of the Sullivan leaders are to have any active part in the management of the western campaign headquarters of the Democratic national committee established in Chicago. This is the case notwithstanding the powerful position that Sullivan has in Cook county politics, and further there seems to be no remembrance of the very active part that M. Sullivan had in securing the Wilson nomination in 1912.

A State's Attorney's Work.

State's Attorney Hoyne in Cook county, who is a candidate for reelection, certainly has a busy record to refer to and one which contains some interesting figures. In the first three and a quarter years of his administration the total convictions for felonies and misdemeanors has reached 42,292. During that period the office has earned in fees $706,635. These figures are interesting not only as they show the work done by Mr. Hoyne and his assistants, but as they throw light upon law violations in a great city. Mr. Hoyne has served as state's attorney on a salary basis in accordance with the present law, while his predecessors were paid in fees. The record shows how lucrative the office of state's attorney must have been for incumbents in years gone by.

The Horse Still Has His Day

Altho there were many automobiles in Jacksonville Wednesday on account of the circus, the horse came into his own to a greater extent than has been true for many months. The unusual sight was presented of hundreds of vehicles standing along the streets near the livery stables. That was a common occurrence on "show day" in years gone by but in more recent times patronage for the livery and feed stables on big days has been materially lessened by the constantly increasing number of cars owned by farmers. The automobile has done much for the farmer in bridging the distance between the country and the city, but the day of the horse is not past by any means and will not pass until good roads have been provided—good 365 days in the year.

THE FLY

One little fly, so busy, will make a strong man dizzy, and drive him to despair; 'twill spoil a day delightful, and fill with language frightful the palpitating air. I murmur, after dinner "A nap would be a winner; so I shall sleep a few; some snores in Greek or Latin, will make me fresh as satin, in half an hour or two." Then to my couch repairing, I soon am smoothly faring into the land of dreams; and then a fly comes pacing along my forehead, tracing the furrows in the seams. Around my eyes it rambles and then it lopes and gambols, along my queenly nose; then my head head exploring, still burrowing and boring, industrious it goes. Malignantly it chases around the ticklish places, which isn't right or fair; I feel my hair grow sore; I am severely mortal, or I would rise and swear. At last I rise and slay it, decapitate and flay it, and then lie down again; no use—there comes another! The dead fly left a brother, to plague the souls of men!

DATES IN ILLINOIS HISTORY.

August 17, 1787—Colonel Harmar, commander of the United States troops in the Old Northwest, came to Kaskaskia to make a general inspection of conditions in Illinois.

he was arrested by Policeman Murphy on the charge of operating an automobile while intoxicated. The judge denies the charge and insists that he was treated discourteously by the policeman, and another judge is to have the somewhat delicate task of deciding the case. The incident would be very shocking in down state cities but it takes something even more serious to permanently wound the sensibilities in Chicago.

The New Penitentiary

Work on the Joliet model penitentiary is progressing satisfactorily altho there is no expectation that the building will be completed for several years yet. The work going on there is interesting from several standpoints. The new institution is being built along modern lines and will be distinctly different from the old penitentiary. Another point is that practically all the labor is being done by convicts and the success of the plan will be watched because upon its results will depend largely the public view of the possibilities of using convict labor on government work. Incidentally those who have made some study of penology agree that the building of this prison in accordance with the plans which have been outlined marks a distinct advance in the methods Illinois is using in the care of criminals.

R. R. Prosperity Figures

The bulletin of the bureau of railway economics just issued gives the surprising figures that the operating income of the railways of the U. S. increased during the month of May $136 per mile or 52.6 per cent by comparison with the same amount in 1915. These figures will be helpful to the Democratic orators but their particular influence at this time would not be political but as an aid to the trainmen in their discussion with the railway managers. It will be granted that operating expenses have increased but the figures quoted are net and show a really surprising condition of prosperity for the railroads.

One thing the public may just as well anticipate and that is if the demands of the trainmen are granted and the roads establish the eight hour system, there will be an enormous increase in the cost of operation. This cost will be charged up somewhere and the roads will undoubtedly ask for authority to increase freight rates and "the consumer must pay the bill."

Senator Kenyon, long the foe of pork measures would appreciate this from the Philadelphia Ledger:

"Here is an example of what the average man at Washington does: 'The town of McKee, in Kentucky has a population of 145 and postoffice receipts of $500 a year. The Congressman representing that district introduced a bill to spend $75,000 for a postoffice at McKee. 'What would John D. Rockefeller have done to a Standard Oil director who favored an outlay of $75,000 for a house in which to do a business of $500 annually? 'The town of Sundance, Wyo., has 300 people and postoffice receipts not exceeding $1,000. But its patriotic representative in Congress asks for $75,000 of your money and mine to build a postoffice. 'How long would it take Levi L. Rue, president of our state's biggest bank, to get rid of a director who should solemnly advise the expenditure for all time of $3.00 cash in the form of interest charges every year to get back $1,000 when the $1,000 could as well be gotten for nothing?'"

Teaching School Children to Save

A number of Illinois cities patterning after some cities in the east, have in recent years with some success tried out the systematic savings plan in the public schools. In Springfield during the first year the plan was in operation the children accumulated in their savings accounts the sum of $16,335. The Galesburg board of education has just decided to install the system in the schools there and will thus follow the plan already successfully operating in East St. Louis, Rock Island, Freeport, Champaign, Urbana, Rockford and Decatur.

The banks of the cities where the systems have been established in the schools favor it and it is their testimony that the school savings plan encouraged habits of thrift which have made hundreds of children regular bank depositors. An initial deposit of 10 cents will open an account. The funds are not kept by the teachers, altho they know when deposits are made, but the children go direct to the banks and it has been found that this in itself cultivates the savings habit.

In these days when people are continually and truthfully complaining of the increased cost of living, any plan which helps to inculcate habits of thrift is an important part of the education of children. Saving, like nearly all other good habits, is very difficult to acquire in maturity if the training of childhood has been to cultivate wastefulness.

BURLINGTON WAY OFFICERS WILL DISCUSS ORGANIZATION PLANS

Extensions of Trail and Formation of Special Road Divisions Will Be Considered at Executive Meeting Aug. 28—Robert Burns to Leave Today.

A. E. Nissen, secretary of the Burlington Way association, will call a meeting of the executive committee, to be held in Jacksonville, Monday, Aug. 28. The question of re-routing the trail from Ft. Madison to Rushville will be officially passed upon at this time as will the advisability of the issuing of a monthly bulletin, to be sent free to members.

Plans will be discussed also for the formation of nine divisional organizations, the president of each division to be selected from among the present supervisors. An extension of the trail from Springfield to Chicago is being considered. Preliminary plans will be made for a southern extension, to lead the trail finally to New Orleans.

Mr. Nissen left Thursday evening for his headquarters in Rock Island. He was accompanied to Chapin by W. J. Brady, former president of the association, and by President Carl H. Weber, taking the C. B. & Q. train for the north.

Robert Burns, the pedestrian who is traversing the length of the trail, will leave for the south this morning at 9 o'clock. He will spend several hours in Woodson and at 4 o'clock this evening will be met two miles north of Murrayville by a boy scout delegation, who will entertain him that evening. ## MORTUARY

Melton

Capt. J. W. Melton, 724 East State street, received a telegram Sunday afternoon announcing the death of his brother Preston P. Melton, who passed away at his home near Browning, Mo., Sunday morning. For several years Mr. Melton had been a sufferer from chronic stomach trouble and tho the message mentioned no cause of death, that ailment is thought to have brought on the end.

Mr. Melton was born in St. Louis, Mo., in November, 1848. In the year 1874 he went to St. Joseph where he engaged in farming. Several years after that he purchased a farm five miles southeast of Browning, where he has since resided. He is survived by his wife and by two children of a former wife.

Mr. Melton made his home in Jacksonville for a time and was employed in the grocery store of Capt. Melton in the building now occupied by the store of J. Herman.

Mr. Melton was a member of the Methodist church and was numbered among the valued citizens of the Browning vicinity.

The funeral was held Monday afternoon and burial was made in a cemetery near Browning. Word was received here too late for Capt. Melton to attend the funeral.

CIRCUS BROUGHT GREAT CROWD OF VISITORS

Big Tent Was Filled For Afternoon
Performance—Workers Few and Parade Could Not Be Given.

The Hagenbeck & Wallace shows came to Jacksonville Wednesday for one of the biggest circus crowds that has been seen in this city for many a day. Earlier in the week the unfavorable weather conditions made the general belief that the attendance would not nearly come up to expectations. While there were not as many automobiles as would have been here if road conditions had been better, thousands of visitors came and in the afternoon performance every seat in the great tent was occupied. At night the tent was not filled but another great crowd was in attendance.

Delay in Unloading
The menagerie and the circus performances proper were of high class and measured up fully to the promises of the management. Because of the fact that the circus is short on laborers more than 100 men, the trains which arrived over the Burlington from Litchfield were not unloaded in time for the morning parade and the big tent was not in readiness until after 3 o'clock in the afternoon. The streets were lined with people during the morning to witness the parade and keen was the disappointment when the announcement came that the big wagons with their open cages and bands would not follow the announced line of march.

Despite the long wait at the grounds for the thousands who went before 2 o'clock, the crowd kept in a good humor and thereby enjoyed the circus features "going" in three rings all the time. There were some excellent clown stunts and the animals added their quota of interest to the whole. Summed up, all the standby circus features and some "new" ones were included in the program and the circus people were well pleased with the program offered.

Many Train Visitors

There were no official estimates of the crowd in Jacksonville but some idea of how the people came was shown by the railroads' records. 125 people bought tickets at Virginia and 162 came on the train from Chapin. Arenville sent 113 passengers and when the Chicago & Alton came in from the north there were scores of people riding in box cars in addition to the loaded coaches. Trains from other directions were equally crowded. The police department had extra men at work in order to keep a sharp lookout for thieves and crooks but the day was marked by unusual good order. Evidently the combined circus and animal show is one of the amusement features of which the American people do not tire.

friends that whether I speak of Alaska or whether I speak of the tariff, no one is going to pull anything out at the public expense if I can prevent it.

"If I am charged with the high office for which I am candidate," Mr. Hughes said in closing, "to put my principles to the test, I am not afraid of the test. I know what it means, but my friends of Oregon—you who mandated me and made me become a candidate at the primary against my will—I have left the bench to undertake the active work of this campaign with but one ambition.

"It is not an ambition to hold high office. That has no illusions for me. But I have ambition to try, so far as within me lies to have efficient American government worthy of America's name honored throughout the world."

Mr. Hughes left late tonight for San Francisco, where he is due to arrive Friday at 12:30 p. m.

tion altho it was understood no determined effort toward congressional action would be taken unless recommended by the president or unless his efforts to avert a strike should fail.

Brotherhood officials are anxious that any agreement which may be reached shall result from the unanimous vote of the whole committee and may not appear to be forced upon them by the sub-committee.

The first meeting of the entire committee will be held tomorrow afternoon at 1 o'clock before calling at the white house. Leaders plan to hold another meeting after the conference with the president. Brotherhood leaders say this problem is too big for the sub-committee to attempt to dictate what should be done by the full committee.

Most of the brotherhood leaders who have been conferring with the president, it was declared would be willing to negotiate all issues to the controversy except the guaranteed eight hour day. With it assured them beyond all doubt, it was said, they would be inclined to accept any fair proposition for settling collateral issues; even the proposal of pro rata pay for overtime. On all hands it was reiterated that the original proposal of time and a half for overtime was merely included in the employees demands for the purpose of enforcing an eight hour day agreement, should one be entered into.

A. B. Garretson, and W. S. Stone, heads of the Conductors and Engineers Brotherhoods, held a conference with Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor during the day. What they discussed was not revealed.

William Thomas

By Ensley Moore.

Member Illinois State Historical Society.

The name of Judge Thomas is known to few citizens of today in Jacksonville, or Morgan county, and yet he was one of the most valuable men the city and county ever had.

Judge Thomas, as many another good citizen of Illinois, was born in the state of Kentucky, in what was then Warren, but is now Allen county. The date of his birth was November 22, 1802. A complete history of his life and public services would fill a volume—and it was a life full of interesting details.

"His parents were natives of Virginia, who in their infancy, removed with their parents to Kentucky, soon after the Indian wars, and married in 1800. They settled in the woods and opened a farm, on which they resided for over fifty years," says Eames, in his History of Morgan, and he makes thirty nine references to Judge Thomas. More than he made to any other individual.

When Thomas was only eighteen years of age his father, being Sheriff of the county, appointed him a deputy. At the end of his father's term, William was made Deputy Clerk of Allen county, getting his board and clothes as his pay. This is in fine contrast to the present day
way of squandering money by public officials. After two years thus employed, young Thomas took a similar place in Warren county, at a salary of $200 per year. These positions had taught him many things,
as well as legal forms and usages.

So his friends advised him to study law, which he did. He entered the office of the Hon. Jas. T. Moorehead, governor and U. S. Senator, using the office and library free of charge. The elder Thomas agreed to board him and wait for his pay until the coming lawyer could earn fees enough to pay it. Thomas was licensed to practice July 5, 1823,

and at once began to attend to law
work with Gov. Moorehead, especially concerning a bank at Russellville, where he remained over a year.
Thomas returned to Bowling Green in December, 1824, and assisted the Hon. Jos. R. Underwood in his law practice, at a small salary. He remained with Mr. Underwood "till September, 1826, when he purchased a horse and travelled thru portions of Indiana and Illinois to Jacksonville where he concluded to settle,"

arriving here Oct. 12, 1826. "At that time Jacksonville contained only eleven families and eight transient persons boarding. The only tavern was kept by a Mr. Tefft, with whom Judge Thomas for some time boarded. His first business was an engagement in the village school for three months, being the first term taught in a city where the lore and patience of thousands have since been taxed and tried."

"In the Spring and Fall of 1827, Thomas attended all the courts of the First Judicial Circuit, composed of pine counties, and was fortunate enough to find some clients."

Lawyer Thomas volunteered, in the summer of 1827, as a private in the mounted militia, called out by Gov. Edwards, to protect the miners and settlers of Jo Daviess county against the Winnebago Indians. He was appointed quartermaster-sergeant, and became a commissary. In 1828-29, he attended the legislature, in Vandalla, and reported the proceedings for the only newspaper then printed there. At this time the Judicial Circuit was divided and a new one made north of the Illinois river, of which Thomas was made State's Attorney. He resigned in 1829.

Mr. Thomas married Miss Catharine Scott, of Morgan county, but a native of Litchfield, N. Y., March 25, 1830. They dwelt together for about forty years, and were the parents of one child, which died in infancy. They were life-long Methodists together, and the Judge was a lay delegate to the General Conference in 1872. He was also a contributor to the support of his church.

Judge and Mrs. Thomas were both tall and large framed people, without being fleshy, and they were as strong in character as they were notable in appearance.

Mr. Thomas was appointed School
Commissioner of Morgan in 1831, holding the place until 1835, during which time he sold the lands in several townships and secured the funds. He took part in the Black Hawk War, first in the spring of 1831, in Duane's brigade, and a year later under Gen. Whiteside; acting as quartermaster and commissary in each service.

He was elected to the state senate in 1836, for four years; during which Mr. Thomas proved himself a competent and efficient officer. He served in the legislature again in 1846-48, 1850-52 and in 1853. He was elected Circuit Judge of the First Judicial Circuit. He was also a member of the Constitutional Convention of 1847. In the Spring of 1861, Judge Thomas was appointed by the Governor and Senate a member of the Board of Army Auditors. "In the following summer he was deputed to go to Washington to obtain funds to pay war accounts, and succeeded in getting $450,000. He had the accounts in such form that Sec.
Chase, without occupying more than twenty minutes, gave the order for the money."

He continued in the office of auditor until the Spring of 1862, when he resigned, having examined upwards of $2,000,- 000 of accounts."

Judge Thomas was most active and efficient in the legislature. In the session of '38-'39, the Institution for the Deaf and Dumb was established,
he securing the location to Jacksonville, and being made a Trustee, in which capacity he served until 1869,
when he was appointed on the Board of Charities; which position he resigned the following season. Thomas was one of the first to move for the establishment of the Asylum for the Insane, of which he was made a Trustee. He resigned as soon as the building was well along. He was one of those who paid the expense of maintaining a School for the Blind, for nearly two years previous to the School being established, and he was the author of the bill which was passed, founding that institution.

He was always busy in his work as a legislator, and active in promoting the best laws. Among his works was a provision for the first common schools in the state. His labors were great and valuable to the state.

Judge Thomas was one of the most active and liberal in establishing the
"Illinois Conference Female College," now known as the "Illinois Woman's College." He was a trustee of the institution, and could not be scared out of the work, even by three fires, after which he was one of the most efficient and liberal in recovering from the continued losses.
It is a large debt that Jacksonville owes to Judge Thomas, and to his memory.

There is a good portrait of Judge
Thomas in the reception room of the School for the Deaf, where it should always be kept.

Judge Thomas was not a brilliant man, probably, but he was alive and awake, and to be found at his post in Church or State. The foregoing is but a sketch of his accomplishments for the public and for good things.

He built a fine large house, as a residence and office, fronting east on South Sandy street, the lot coming down to the northwest corner of College Avenue. This about 1850.
He sold that house, which became the Prince Sanatorium, and later the "New Southern Hotel," and which was torn down for stores. About 1870, Judge Thomas built another large residence, still standing, on the north side of College avenue,
about three doors east of Church street, which was his last home. After the death of his first wife he was again married, this time to Mrs.
Leanna Orear, widow of William Orear. Mrs. Thomas survived the Judge, and was noted for her bene-fices.

The good old man went before the Judge of all the world, August 27, 1889, after a life seven years past
the allotted four score years.

WILL OPPOSE MANN FOR RENOMINATION

Anti-Saloon League and Church
Workers Charge Him With Being Special Factor in Defeat of Hobson Amendment.

Chicago, Ill., Aug. 16.—Congressman James R. Mann, the Republican minority leader in the national house of representatives, is facing serious opposition for renomination in his home district which comprises South Side of Chicago. An unusually strong combination of church workers and other foes of the liquor traffic are seeking to bring about his defeat. He is charged by those advocating the Hobson constitutional amendment, forbidding the sale of liquor, with taking a leading part in defeating the measure. The Anti-Saloon League of America has thrown its resources into a campaign to prevent Mr. Mann's renomination at the primary next month and is taking steps to arouse interest in the contest.

Rev. Melbourn P. Boynton, a Baptist clergyman and a leader for many years in the University of Chicago neighborhood, has been brought out as a candidate for the Republican nomination against Mr. Mann. Mr.
Boynton was a member of several delegations which went to Washington to ask Congressman Mann's support of the Hobson amendment. He became a candidate after his congregation had voted in favor of it.

In explaining his entry into politics
Mr. Boynton declared the fight will be broader than any one measure and will be aimed at the interests which defeat the will of the people.
"It was James Mann," he said
in a statement announcing his candidacy, "who led the fight that defeated the submission of the Hobson amendment to the states providing for the prohibition of the sale of strong drink in the United States and her dependencies. In other parts of the nation congressmen have already been defeated for re-election because they voted against the submission of this same amendment, and to let the leader of this opposition to the amendment go back to Congress
without a contest, would be unthinkable."

A stirring contest is predicted in the district between now and the time of the primaries. Speakers of national prominence, according to plans formulated by Anti-Saloon League officials, will be brought here to speak against Mr. Mann and in favor of Mr. Boynton.

Misses Myrtle Harris and Elma
Borden were city arrivals yesterday
from Beardstown.

MANY MARKSMEN HERE FOR SHOOT

AMMANS MADE BEST RECORD IN PROFESSIONAL CLASS

Craig of Nichols Park Club Tied With Correll of Missouri With 145 Score—Interesting Events
Today.

The opening day's shoot at Nichols Park Gun Club was pulled off under ideal weather conditions, altho the sun was shining a little too brightly for the shooting toward the south.

A. H. Ammans of Peotone, Illinois was high professional, breaking 148 out of a possible 150 birds. Bart Lewis of Auburn, the well known professional, was second with 147
and W. R. Crosby of O'Fallon, Illinois was third with 145.

The real contest of the day's shoot was between W. T. Craig of the Nichols Park Gun Club and Frank R. Correll of Perry, Mo. In the tenth event Craig finished with a fifteen bird straight and when Cor-rell stepped out to the traps to shoot his fifteen he was leading Craig by one bird. It looked as if Correll was going to walk away with the event as he went along nicely. Cor-rell broke all the birds clean until the tenth when he succeeded in getting only a little piece of the target, but it counted as "dead" and he went along until the fifteenth bird.
The gallery thought it was all over with Craig, but Correll got over-anxious and shot under the bird and scored a miss. This put Craig and Correll in a tie which will in all probability be broken today.

Mr. Correll said after he left the traps, "If I had pulled the trigger
a second later I would have had that bird. I realized the moment I shot that I was going to shoot under it."

It surely was a hard bird to lose,
but Correll is a good sport and is going into the meet today more determined than ever.

Craig will be in the shooting today also and if coolness has anything to do with it, Craig will give Correll
a run for the money.

Bart Lewis was in his usual good form and broke the birds with his usual grace. A more graceful shooter than Mr. Lewis has not been found and it is not likely that one will be in many a year.

W. R. Crosby of O'Fallon was on the job and it was well seen by the way he broke his targets that he was still in his old time form. Mr. Crosby toured Europe with a bunch of shooters a few years ago and whenever anything special was to be pulled off it was generally up to "Bill" to do it. He could always be relied upon in a pinch.

The work of Ammans was of high class. Mr. Ammans, altho small, is certainly a crack when it comes to mussing up the clay. His breaks were all clean and he is in the shoot
all the time.

James A. Groves, a former Jacksonville citizen, but now of Chicago, handled the shoot as he did of old and the events were run off rapidly.
Frank Vickery and Charles Magill assisted Mr. Groves.

The tournament will be continued thruout the day and several more shooters are expected to arrive
this morning to enter.

The following is the way Craig
and Correll shot in each event:
Craig 14 14 15 15 14 15 14 14
15 14 15.

Correll 14 15 15 15 13 15 14 15

GOES TO AN ENGLISH PARISH

New York, Aug. 15.—Among the passengers booked to sail for Europe
today on the Kronland is the Rev.
Albert E. Dunning, D. D., formerly editor of The Congregationalist, who has accepted an invitation to take temporary charge of the Bowdoin Downs Congregationalist church in a suburb of Manchester, England.
The church is now without a pastor.
Many of its young men are in the British army, and the regiment to which they belong are now in the trenches in France. Several of them, according to advices received by Dr.
Dunning, have recently been killed or wounded.

Among Jacksonville visitors yesterday from the Hartland vicinity were Justin Hart and family, Thomas

WOMAN ACCUSED AS BANK ROBBER

Leavenworth, Kas., Aug. 16.—A quartette of alleged bank robbers, including a woman who is believed to have been the "brains" of the gang, were arraigned in court here today for a preliminary hearing on charges of having been concerned in the recent robbery of banks at Joplin and Linwood, Kas. The woman in the case is Beulah Evans, wife of Frank Evans, one of the alleged members of the band. The others are Barney Ballew and Frank Mulkey. The latter is alleged to have been the owner and driver of the motor car used by the band in their operations. The four were captured near Kansas City. The three men, according to the Kansas City police, confessed to their part in the bank robberies. The woman held her tongue until she learned that the men had been talking freely, when she too is alleged to have revealed much interesting information concerning the operations of the gang. In addition to the bank robbery charges, the four may be held to answer to a charge of murder in connection with the killing of a motorcycle patrolman who was slain while endeavoring to overtake the fleeing automobile after the robbery at Linwood.

In the first heat, Napoleon Direct won in 1:59 3-4 with Peter Stevens the second horse, doing his mile in two minutes flat. It was the first time in a driving career of forty-five years that Edward "Pop" Geers ever rode a mile in better than two minutes. In the next heat the pace was slower thro the first half and Napoleon Direct was four lengths back at the far turn. He closed with a wonderful rush and finished a head in front of Single G.

Separate timing caught Napoleon Direct over the last half in 56 1-2 seconds.
In a time trial Directum I, became the world's champion pacer for 1 1-16 miles. The old record was 2:14 3-4 made in 1904 by Cherry Lass. Off to a slow start, Directum I, did the distance in 2:09 3-4. The last mile was paced in 2:09 1-4.

SHOULD NOT HOLD "BETTER" BABIES CONTESTS

Chicago, Aug. 15.—"Better baby" contests, large children's parties and other affairs that bring babies together in large numbers should not be held in Chicago and throughout Illinois until the danger of infantile paralysis is over.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Hutches, formerly of Chicago, have decided to remove to Jacksonville and have already rented a house. Mrs. Hutches is a sister of Elmer Henderson and both have many friends here who will gladly welcome them to Jacksonville.

EVERY BULGE FINDS SELLING ORDERS WAITING IN WHEAT PIT

Result is a Net Loss of 3 to 1½ Cents—Corn Prices are Largely Influenced by Wheat.

Chicago, Aug. 16.—Yesterday's advance in wheat apparently satisfied the trade for the moment as bulges were seized upon today to take profits. The result was a net loss 3 to 1½c. Corn closed ½c lower to a shade higher; oats unchanged and provisions irregular from 25c lower for December pork to 10c up for October ribs.

Crop advices continued bullish and Liverpool was higher, and these factors encouraged holders for the time being to hold back for a further rise. When it came however, there was plenty for sale and thereafter every bulge found selling orders waiting. Fluctuations covered an extreme range of 4½c.

Corn prices covered a range of ½c and were influenced largely by wheat. Official weather reports include information that crop damage in Illinois is less than 25 percent, and the same in Iowa. News of the oats crop was not considered significant and prices reflected the trend in neighboring pits. Buying by seaboard exporters was more than offset by local profit-taking.

Provisions advanced early on liberal shipments of lard and the advance in live hogs with shorts leading in the buying, but realizing sales later found little support and the gain was mostly lost. Closing prices were at the bottom.

Chautauqua Notes

The tents for all campers were erected Wednesday.

The Big Tent is up and the platform, chairs and lights are being placed so that everything will be in readiness for Mr. Medbury to open the program promptly on Friday afternoon.

Arthur Walwyn Evans who lectures next Sunday afternoon will have delivered 285 paid lectures during the year ending September 1st. This is his third year on the Chautauqua circuit and forty per cent of his dates this year were return engagements. His time is now sold up to the first day of next June. Mr. Evans is fast mounting to the top rung of the Chautauqua ladder. He makes a big, sane plea for universal peace and the wit and humor he furnishes just to heap up the measure is an altogether original and remarkable product.

Both telephones have been placed in the Secretary's office on the grounds, Illinois 704, Bell 611, and someone will be in constant attendance until the close of the Assembly.

The Metropolitan Grand Male Quartet which appears on the program the last Saturday and Sunday has earned the title "The Master Singers of Chautauqua." This quartet, big in every way, is a singing quartet and musical organization and not a fun making kid quartet.

Those campers who desire to have floors placed in the tents may have this work done by telephoning the Secretary at the grounds.

Recently a number of Chautauqua directors from out of town have called on the Secretary and have remarked upon the unusual talent upon our 1916 program and wondered that it can be furnished for the low price of one dollar. All these visitors had heard the White Hussars Band and each praised it with stint, saying that it is the most popular musical attraction they had ever heard. One of the officials connected with the Hagenbeck-Wallace Co. commended this band and remarked that among its members were several of the best musicians he had ever heard.

Police service at the grounds will commence today.

Many of the campers have already moved into their tents and today will see most of the tents converted into ten-day homes. There are more campers than ever before and they will make a great happy family.

The Hruby Family of Cleveland, which is on the program for Thursday and Friday of next week is to have charge of the Hruby Conservatory now building in Cleveland. They toured Europe in 1912 as the Hruby Bohemian orchestra and gave five months of concerts including thirty-five concerts in Berlin where they introduced "rag time." Since then each of these talented artists has earned distinct musical fame. They are the originators of the most unique and up-to-date programs on the Chautauqua.

A good many subscribers have not taken up their tickets. They are earnestly requested to call and redeem their pledges before Friday noon. The attractions for the Chautauqua are bought on these pledges and of course must be paid for and subscribers are expected to call promptly for their tickets.

Escape TOOTH Troubles

—by keeping your teeth REALLY CLEAN. "But," you say, "I brush my teeth regularly, yet they decay." Yes, you brush them, but do you REALLY CLEAN them? Tonight, after brushing your teeth, examine them closely. You will likely find an accumulation of tartar on the enamel and bits of food deposit hiding in the crevices.

Decay, as well as the dangerous gum disease called Pyorrhea, usually develops only at the mouth where germ-laden tartar is present.

SENRECO, the formula of a dental specialist, keeps the teeth REALLY CLEAN. It embodies specially prepared soluble granules unusually effective in cleaning away food deposits. Moreover, it is particularly destructive to the germ of Pyorrhea.

Go to your dealer today and get a tube of Senreco—keep your teeth REALLY CLEAN and protect yourself against Pyorrhea and decay. Send 4c to Senreco, 304 Walnut St., Cincinnati, Ohio, for liberal-sized trial package.

WHITE HALL AWARDS CONTRACT
FOR LIGHTING THE STREETS

Council Concludes Five Year Agreement with Public Service Corporation—Other White Hall News.

White Hall, Ill., Aug. 16—The White Hall city council at a special meeting Tuesday night entered into contract with the Central Illinois Public Service Corporation to light the streets of the city for a period of five years at $3,250 per year for eighty-four lights, of which thirty-four are to be 400cp. and fifty 100cp. The local system will undergo reconstruction. For over two years the company has been lighting the streets on the terms of an expired contract from month to month, and the action of Tuesday night is the culmination of a long series of negotiations and conferences during which an effort was made to secure a municipal lighting plant, but the proposition was unmercifully defeated when brought to a vote last spring. The present franchise of the Central Illinois Public Service Company will expire in a little over seven years.

Dr. Mayo, who is to make the address, arrived with his party in the Mayo steamer at Keokuk Wednesday afternoon and started at 3 p. m. by automobile for the Black farm, arriving there last night. Two cars are carried on the boat for use when the party desires to travel inland from the river. Dr. Mayo is a surgeon of such wide renown that physicians and surgeons for many miles around are expected to be present today as the opportunities to hear him are very infrequent.

From Washington they passed thru Cumberland, Wheeling, Columbia, Indianapolis, and from there they took the Champaign route to Jacksonville. The trip was made in a Buick car. Practically no tire trouble was experienced by the tourists. The roads were in excellent condition the entire trip with two exceptions. The first was an eleven mile stretch between Washington and Cumberland. The second was between Champaign and Jacksonville. George Tandy expects to make a few weeks visit in the city with his parents before returning to his school at Chapel Hill. He will leave here about Aug. 28th, as he will return early for practice on the gridiron. He was elected captain of the foot ball team there last fall. Mr. Tandy is expected home the latter part of the week from a business visit in the east.

HOME FROM MICHIGAN TRIP.

Mr. and Mrs. Julius G. Strawn, son and daughter, returned Wednesday afternoon from their automobile trip to Michigan. They were accompanied here from Chicago by Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Roberts and son Myler, who will visit Jacksonville friends for several days. The Strawn family left Jacksonville three weeks ago in company with F. E. Farrell and family. They went from Jacksonville to Indianapolis and then on north to various Michigan resorts, and spent a number of days at Omens. Returning they came by boat from Traverse City to Chicago as they found a number of difficult sandy stretches on the road thru Michigan. Their speedometer registered something more than 1,300 miles for the trip and during that time they had but two punctures and two blowouts, and one of the number was just nine miles from Jacksonville on the return trip. This was Mr. Strawn's first long distance journey with his Cadillac car and he and his family returned to Jacksonville quite enthusiastic over cross country automobile travel. They started from Chicago at 5:30 Wednesday morning and reached Jacksonville before 5 p. m.

GREAT RAINFALL AT WHITE HALL TUESDAY

More Than Three Inches Fell in a Short Period—Creeks on Rampage.

White Hall, Aug. 16.—The most terrific electrical storm within the memory of the oldest inhabitant visited White Hall between 1 and 2 o'clock Tuesday morning, but no great property damage has been reported aside from wires. A farm house was burned southwest of Carrollton and a barn near Greenfield. The lightning began at 9 P. M. and continued almost the entire night, reaching its greatest ferocity at the hour stated. The total rainfall during the night was three and one-half inches, according to R. B. Pearce, the local government observer and forecast distributor. Since last Friday night there has been a total rainfall of 7.80 inches at White Hall, which seems to be ample for all present needs.

At Hillview Hurricane creek went on a rampage Tuesday morning and did much damage. The Central Illinois Public Service had a number of poles to re-erect in that vicinity, and the power was off until about noon Tuesday. The Burlington suffered a severe washout at Wood River, near Alton, and trains were derailed via the C. & A., as were also trains from the Missouri line of the Burlington between Louisiana and St. Louis, there being a washout on the line.

LACK OF WORKERS MADE CIRCUS PARADE IMPOSSIBLE

Story that Management Called off Feature Because of License Fee Had No Foundation.

Because there was no circus parade Wednesday and thousands of people who lined the streets were disappointed, the story gained some credence that there was no parade because of an exorbitant fee for the use of the streets demanded by the mayor and city commissioners. The figures in the story vary from $300 to $400. There was not the slightest foundation for this story, as there was no disagreement about the use of the streets. The fact that there was no parade was occasioned by the late arrival of the show trains from Litchfield. The final unloading was not accomplished until nearly 1 o'clock and the big tent was not in readiness for the throng until after 3 o'clock.

The real cause for there being no parade and for the delay in beginning the performance is that the Hagenbeck-Wallace shows are short more than 100 men. All this season the management has had difficulty in securing sufficient help and scores and hundreds of men have quit the work because of activity in other lines and the good wages offered.

One man travelling with the show, not an official, made a statement which may be put down as summing up the real situation. He said, "Only one parade a week is now being given, and that on Monday, when we have two days' time for moving from one town to another. The show is short 75 men in the big department and 10 to 12 men short in every other department. So you can see that delays are absolutely certain in preparing for each day's performance."

RETIRED MERCHANT OF VIRGINIA CALLED WEDNESDAY BY DEATH

E. D. Clinton Woodward Dies After an Illness of But a Few Minutes Duration—Funeral Friday Afternoon.

Virginia, Aug. 16.—E. D. Clinton Woodward, retired business man of Virginia, died at his home Wednesday forenoon at 9 o'clock after an illness that lasted but a few minutes. Mr. Woodward was 67 years old, having retired several years ago from the proprietorship of a grocery firm. He was a brother-in-law of Sheriff Grant Graft and of Charles B. Graft of Jacksonville.

Mr. Woodward was assisting his wife in putting up some wall paper and was standing on a ladder when the attack came. Mrs. Woodward noticed that he was turning pale and requested Mr. Woodward to come down. Assuring his wife that he would be all right in a few minutes, he sat down on top of the ladder. Attempting finally to step down, Mr. Woodward fell to the floor and was assisted to his room. Becoming alarmed at the condition of her husband, Mrs. Woodward gave vent to screams. Neighbors soon arrived and a physician was summoned, but Mr. Woodward passed away in a few minutes' time.

Mr. Woodward was born in Virginia and was married in early manhood to Mrs. Mollie Chamberlain. They were the parents of a daughter, Mrs. Celia Nesbit. Mrs. Woodward was later married to Mrs. Mollie Crum, who was formerly Miss Mollie Graft. Mrs. Woodward survives him as does Mrs. Nesbit and one stepson Edward Chamberlain of Dow City, Iowa.

Sheriff Graft and C. B. Graft expect to go to Virginia Friday morning to attend the funeral. Services will be held in the afternoon at 2 o'clock at the family home. Burial will be made in Walnut Ridge cemetery.
